STORYLINES

Home Sweet Home: The Red Stars return to regular-season play at SeatGeek Stadium for the first time since July 6, over two months since the club's win over the Houston Dash. Chicago arrives home September 8 with an imposing opponent – the unbeaten Orlando Pride. While it will be a fight to come out on top, the result won't be able dampen the celebratory mood of the Welcome Home Match, presented by United Airlines. Red Stars fans aren't just cheering for the first return of Olympic gold medalists Alyssa Naeher and Mallory Swanson; the club will be introducing two new signings to their new home following a busy transfer window. Midfielder Julia Grosso and forward Ludmila signed with Chicago in July, but have yet to make their home field debuts after representing Canada and Brazil respectively at the 2024 Paris Olympics. With so much to look forward to, the action-packed September 8 match will be one to remember.

Record Breaking Company: Chicago and Orlando, two of the NWSL's most prolific record-breaking teams in 2024, take the pitch September 8 with more achievements on the line. Since the Pride and the Red Stars' first meeting this season March 29, both sides have made NWSL history. Chicago went first, with the Red Stars Take Over Wrigley Field match June 8 setting the NWSL regular-season attendance record. Orlando followed August 23, with the Pride's 1-0 shutout of the Houston Dash extending the club's unbeaten streak to a record 18 matches. Internationally, Red Star Mallory Swanson and Orlando's Barbara Banda recently made history at the Olympics; Swanson's two goals for Team USA July 25 were 66 seconds apart, the fastest two goals by a single player in a major tournament in United States Women's National Team History. Banda became the first player in Olympics history to record back-to-back hat tricks July 28. With both stars now back on club duty, Chicago looks to deliver the Pride their first loss and extend their win streak at home against Orlando to four straight matches.

Can't Get Past Kuikka: Since debuting for the Red Stars in 2024, defender Natalia Kuikka has quickly but quietly proven why she's been named the Finnish Female Footballer of the Year five times over. September 1 was no different, as Kuikka ranked second and fourth, respectively, for Chicago in shots (2) and completed passes (22) on top of assisting Chicago's only goal. On the season, Kuikka has notably recorded more clearances (118) and blocks (22) than any other NWSL player and has a team-high 1,042 touches and 748 passes. Earning minutes in every match for Chicago so far in 2024, Kuikka has tallied a passing accuracy higher than 75 percent in 12 of those 18 matches played. Consistency like Kuikka's will no doubt contribute heavily to the impenetrable back line Chicago will need against Orlando September 8.

PLAYER TRANSACTIONS

CHICAGO RED STARS TRADE FORWARD, PENELOPE HOCKING TO BAY FC

The Chicago Red Stars announced the trade of forward, Penelope Hocking, to Bay FC for a $350,000 transfer fee, one of the highest transfer fees in women's soccer to date. Hocking was selected seventh overall by the Red Stars in the 2023 NWSL draft.

CHICAGO RED STARS ACQUIRE MOROCCAN INTERNATIONAL, ROSELLA AYANE ON LOAN

The Chicago Red Stars announced the acquisition of forward and Moroccan international, Rosella Ayane, on loan through the end of the 2024 National Women's Soccer League (NWSL) season. Ayane joins the Red Stars from Tottenham Hotspurs of the Women's Super League.

COACHES

HEAD COACH LORNE DONALDSON

Lorne Donaldson has been the head coach of the Chicago Red Stars since December 20, 2023. Prior to joining the club, Donaldson was the head coach of the Jamaican Women's National Team. As Jamaica's head coach, Donaldson led the team to its second-consecutive FIFA Women's World Cup appearance and led the team into the knock rounds of the 2023 Women's World Cup; making Jamaica the first Caribbean nation to make it into the round of 16. Donaldson's coaching experience includes time on the youth level where he coached the Jamaican under-17 and under-20 youth national teams, and with the elite youth soccer club, Real Colorado, where he serves as president and executive coaching director.

ASSISTANT COACH MASAKI HEMMI

Masaki 'Mac' Hemmi is an assistant coach for the Chicago Red Stars. This will be Hemmi's first season with the club after joining during the 2024 offseason. Hemmi joined the Red Stars from USL club, United Soccer League club, New Mexico United, where he served as director of player personnel and first assistant coach. Hemmi also served as recruiting coordinator and assistant coach at the University of Denver. In 2021, Hemmi joined Japanese side, INAC Kobe of the WE League, as associate head coach to help players prepare for the Tokyo Olympics.

COACHES

ASSISTANT COACH ELLA MASAR

Ella Masar is a second-year assistant coach for the Chicago Red Stars. Masar joined the club in 2023 after spending a year with the Kansas City Current. Masar is an Illinois native and former Red Stars player who played in 20 games for the Red Stars in 2013 and scored three goals with two assists that year. Masar's playing career also includes stints with the Houston Dash, Paris Saint-Germain (France) and VfL Wolfsburg (Germany). For the Red Stars' last match in 2023, Masar served as the club's interim head coach, coaching against former teammate and Red Star, Megan Rapinoe.

GOALKEEPER COACH BRENTON SAYLOR

Brenton Saylor is the goalkeeper coach for the Chicago Red Stars. Entering his first season with the club, Saylor joined the Red Stars from U.S. Soccer Youth National Teams (USYNT), where he has served as the goalkeeper coach for the under-15, -16 and -17 United States Women's Youth National Team since 2022. In addition to Saylor's USYNT experience, he also served as goalkeeper coach for the National Women's Soccer League's Houston Dash from 2018 to 2022. Saylor has coached goalkeepers at the youth academy, collegiate, professional and international levels since 2008. Most recently, Saylor was appointed Girls Academy Director at HTX Soccer Girls Academy in July 2023.

ASSISTANT COACH KARINA BÁEZ

Karina Báez is in her first year as assistant coach for the Chicago Red Stars. Báez now serves as the assistant coach of analytics for the club after working with the Mexican Women's National Team as a scout. Prior to working with the national team, the first year NWSL coach worked with Pachuca and Tigres women's teams in the Liga MX Femenil league. With both teams Báez served as an assistant coach and helped coach the under-15 and under-17 teams. In 2021, Báez was named the head coach for Pumas UNAM's women's team where she was head coach for one year.
